Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

HEY write from Vienna, that Count Seckendorf's Affair stands much as it did, and that above 100,000 Florins have already been expended in that Prosecution; that the Count is at all the Charge of it; that the Captain of the Guard set upon him, has a Lewis

Or from him every Day, and eats at his Table; that he gives the Subaltern Officer a Florin a Day, and 8 d. to every Soldier, besides Meat and Drink, Fire and Candle, &c. and the vast Charge he is at for the Attendance of the Commissioners, Secretaries, Attornies, Scriveners and others employ'd in his Affair.

The Emperor has issued Orders for the speedy Levy of the Tenth which the Convents and Clergy of the Emperor's Hereditary Dominions are obliged to pay towards the Expences of the next Campaign. As to the two Millions granted for that End by the Pope, the Imperial Court has order'd the Bills of Exchange for that Sum to be discount'd at Venice. The Mines of Hungary and Transylvania will turn out better hereafter than they have done yet, by a late Discovery of several Veins of Gold, Pewter, and Quicksilver; and of the Gold which has been carried to the Mint at Kremnitz, and proved to be of a good Alloy, several thousand Ducats have been already coined and circulated.

The Paris Letter dated on Wednesday last says, the King rides out on Horseback almost every Day, and that on the Thursday before, he went a Stag-hunting in the Forest of St. Germain: But the Dauphin is so far from being perfectly recovered, that his Majesty has order'd the Physicians and Surgeons, that were sent for from Paris to be retain'd at Versailles, where they are allow'd a Table.

It mentions Advice from Genoa, by Letters of the 18th Instant O. S. that the French Forces which sailed from Antibes, arrived safe at St. Fiorenzo in Corsica, on the 19th ult.

They write from Dijon, that by a late Arrêt of the Parliament of Burgundy, the Marquis de Tavannes Mirabeau, who on the 24th of May 1732, at Night, took away the Daughter of the Marquis de Brun, with her own Consent, from the Castle de la Marche, and afterwards carried her out of the Kingdom, has been condemn'd in an Outlawry, and to be beheaded, and that by reason of his Escape, his Head is to be cut off in Effigie before the Gate of the above-mentioned Castle.

They add from Paris, that on the 10th Instant a solemn Service was perform'd in Presence of a great Number of Nobility at the Theatins Church, for the Repose of the Soul of the Duke of Mazarin, and that upon this Occasion the Church was hung with Black to the very Ceiling, with several Stripes of Velvet, on which were fixed the Escutcheons of the Arms of the Mazarin Family, and that the Church was illuminated with 800 Lights. They say the Expence of the Service in the whole, amounts to above 20,000 Livres.

The Paris Letters mention a Comic Scene that was represented to the Publick lately by the Life Guards in their great Hall, part of which was fitted up in Form of a Court of Justice. Several of the Guards were disguised like Magistrates, others like Lawyers and Registers, one like a young Woman and another in the Dress of a Nurse, with a little Child. A Cause was then and there pleaded, as follows: A Parson declared that a Life Guardman, tho' actually then upon the Patrol, was dead, because he had said Prayers for him; and he demanded his Fees. The Lawyer who pleaded for the Life Guardman, who was pretended to be dead, maintained that he was alive, tho' sick. His Witness to the Fact was the Soldier that was in the Disguise of the young Woman, who produced a Promise of Marriage that the Life Guardman had put into her Hands. His Council admitted of the Promise of Marriage; but he said that the young Woman to whom it was really given was dead, and that she that appeared in Court was not the right Person: After hearing the several Replications and Parties, and mature Deliberation had thereupon, an Arrêt intervened, whereby the Life Guardman obtained a Verdict against the Parson, who was permitted however to bury him, if he did not appear to be alive in 8 Days time: And as to the Damsel, who went by the Name of Agnes Judith de Montandre, she is acknowledged to be the actual Daughter of the Sieur de Montandre, and as such the Life Guardman is order'd to make haste and marry her, &c. The Soldier who represented the Damsel, did not fail to make low Curtseys every time that her Name was mentioned; and after the Hearing was over, she was complimented upon her carrying the Cause. The Assembly was very numerous to hear this Mock-Trial, and the Judges were dress'd very queerly. They wore their Mantles the wrong Side outward, and as they were lin'd with Red upon the Shoulders, they look'd very much like Hoods; and they had great Bands of Paper, &c. The King had a Mind to see this Mummery, and therefore the Masqueraders went down thro' the little Court that joins to the Dauphin's Apartment.

The Mandate of the Archbishop of Paris for the Observation of Lent, address'd to the Rural Deans of his Diocese, is a remarkable Piece.

'Tis always, says he, with Regret that we employ the Sacred Authority of our Ministry to moderate the Rigor of that Fast which our common Mother prescribes to her Children, in a Time devoted to Repentance. Being instructed by long Experience, that Dispensations multiply'd, lessen that Veneration in the Minds of the People which they owe to the Laws of the Church; we fear lest our Indulgence will make them treat that Law which forbids the Use of certain Meats in Lent, as a needless Yoke and a Burden which neither we nor our Fathers have been able to bear. Nevertheless the Representations of those wise Magistrates, who attend with indefatigable Zeal to the Necessities of this Capital, have determined us to bear with the Weakness of those Persons whose Ease ought to be one of the principal Views of our Care and Attention.

For these Reasons, in regard to the Representations that have been made to us, we permit the Use of Eggs during the ensuing Lent Season, from Ash-Wednesday inclusively, to Friday in Passion Week exclusively; and, for the rest, we exhort the Believers exactly to observe Abstinence and Fasting in these Days of our Salvation, wherein we have all possible Invitation to atone, by the sacred and austere Acts of Penance, for the Faults whereof we confess ourselves guilty in the Sight of the Lord. And forasmuch as it is not our Intention to encourage Sensuality, we conjure the Rich to remember, that tho' they are permitted the Use of a General Dispensation, which the Necessities of the Poor have extorted from us, 'tis reasonable they should supply what we retrench from the Rigour of the Law, by relieving the said Poor with their Charity, and by Abstinence from Plays, Shews, and other prophane Diversions, from which Christians ought at all times to debar themselves, &c.

The States of Holland and West Friesland after having consented to the Taxes on the Establishment of last Year, have adjourned their usual Assembly till next Month.

They write from Rome, that a Petition was drop'd in the Penitentiary's Office, by a Gentlewoman unknown, wherein she desires Absolution for her Education of a Daughter of her's, whom she brought up in all Respects like a Son, sent her to the University, and procur'd her Preferment in the Church. This Affair is very much talk'd of at Rome, and in many Companies has revived the Story of Pope Joan.

From Vienna they write, that the Council of War has issued an Order, prohibiting the Officers to take their Wives to the Field, or any other Women, but a few of the Soldiers Wives to wash their Linen, &c. nor to carry any Plate with them, to tempt their Servants to plunder the Baggage.

The Letters add, that the Turkish Troops, in order to be forc'd to discharge their Duty, are oblig'd to take a new Oath, drawn up by the Musti, wherein they declare, That if they do not fight to the last Drop of their Blood for the Maintenance of the Glory of the Ottoman Arms, they will consent not only to be punished upon Earth, but also after Death, and to be for ever depriv'd of the Felicity of the true Believers, and of the Happiness of seeing the Great Prophet Mahomet in Heaven.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible

Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Intigation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venem to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scabrous, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medicing yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAFFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
